What Parents Should Know

Why are only certain students moving to more in-person learning?

We are able to arrange classrooms to allow for social distancing for these students. First grade has the smallest class sizes in the district, which allows desks to be socially distanced.

Both Self-Contained and Level II Career Center classes have small enough numbers to allow for social distancing.

Remote and virtual instruction is more challenging for these student groups due to age, special needs, or requirement for hands-on skills work.

Why are Level II Career Center and Middle and High Special Education students only returning 4 days a week?

Some middle and high Special Education teachers will continue to support students in the Virtual Program and will utilize Friday for planning and supporting students. Career Center teachers will be working with Level I students for both in-person and eLearning and will use Fridays for planning and eLearning.

Why are Fine Arts Center classes not included?

Fine Arts Center classrooms do not allow for social distancing with all students present.

Why don't students in the 5-day Attendance Plan go in-person on Friday, October 2 and Friday, October 9?

Teachers need this time to arrange childcare services for their own children.
